SECTION 21. KRS 383.635 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED AS A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Except as provided in Section 22 of this Act, if a landlord’s noncompliance with the lease or Section 16 of this Act results in the tenant not receiving an essential service, materially interferes with the health or safety of the tenant or immediate family member, or materially interferes with the use and enjoyment of the premises by the tenant or immediate family member and the noncompliance is not remedied during the applicable period specified in Section 20 of this Act, the tenant may:

(a) Terminate the lease as provided in Section 23 of this Act; or

(b) Continue the lease and elect one (1) or more of the following remedies:

1. Withhold rent for the period of noncompliance beginning on the date the tenant gave notice under Section 20 of this Act;
2. Recover actual damages;

3. Obtain injunctive relief, specific performance, or other equitable relief;

4. Make repairs and deduct the cost from the rent, as provided in Section 25 of this Act; or

5. Secure an essential service the landlord is obligated to provide or comparable substitute housing during the period of noncompliance as provided in Section 26 of this Act.

(2) If a landlord’s noncompliance with the lease or Section 16 of this Act does not materially interfere with the health or safety of the tenant or immediate family member or the use and enjoyment of the premises by the tenant or immediate family member, the tenant may elect one (1) or more of the remedies provided in subsection (1)(b)2., 3., or 4. of this section.

(3) A tenant is not entitled to a remedy under this section to the extent:

⇒ SECTION 22. KRS 383.650 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED AS A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) If a dwelling unit or other part of the premises is substantially damaged or destroyed by a fire, other casualty, or natural disaster and:

(a) The unit or other part of the premises is uninhabitable or inaccessible or continued occupancy of the unit is unlawful, the tenant may vacate the unit immediately and, not later than fourteen (14) days after vacating the unit, give the landlord notice in a record of the tenant’s intent to terminate the lease, in which case the lease terminates as of the date the tenant vacates the unit; or

(b) If continued occupancy of the unit is lawful, subject to the landlord’s right to terminate the lease under subsection (2) of this section, the tenant, after complying with Section 20 of this Act, may continue the lease and seek the remedies provided in subsection (1)(b)1., 2., 3., or 4. of Section 21 of this Act.

(2) If a dwelling unit or other part of the premises is substantially damaged by a fire, other casualty, or natural disaster and continued occupancy of the unit is unlawful or dangerous or requires repairs that can be made only if the tenant vacates the unit, the landlord may terminate the lease by giving the tenant notice in a record that the lease will terminate on a specified date, which must be at least five (5) days after the notice is given.

(3) If a landlord’s noncompliance with the lease or Section 16 of this Act materially interferes with the health or safety of a tenant or immediate family member or the use and enjoyment of the premises by the tenant or immediate family member and it is impossible for the landlord to remedy the noncompliance within the use and enjoyment of the premises by the tenant or immediate family member and it is impossible for the landlord to remedy the noncompliance not later than (30) days after receiving the notice under Section 20 of this Act, the landlord may terminate the lease by giving the tenant notice in a record that the lease will terminate on a specified date, which must be at least thirty (30) days after the landlord gives the notice. The landlord shall not rent the unit for ninety (90) days after termination of the lease.

(6) This section does not preclude:

(a) A landlord from seeking actual damages from the tenant under law other than Sections 1 to 61 of this Act for damage to the premises caused by an act or omission of the tenant, immediate family member, or guest; or

(b) A tenant from seeking actual damages from the landlord under law other than Sections 1 to 61 of this Act if the fire or other casualty was caused by an act or omission of the landlord or landlord’s agent.

SECTION 23. KRS 383.625 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED AS A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) If a landlord’s noncompliance with the lease or Section 16 of this Act materially interferes with the health or safety of the tenant or immediate family member and the noncompliance is not remedied within the period specified in subsection (2)(b) of Section 20 of this Act, the tenant may terminate the lease by giving the landlord notice in a record of the tenant’s intent to terminate the lease immediately or on a specified date, which is not later than thirty (30) days after the date of the notice.

(2) If a landlord’s noncompliance with the lease or Section 16 of this Act materially interferes with the use and enjoyment of the premises unrelated to the health or safety of the tenant or immediate family member and the noncompliance is not remedied within the period specified in subsection (2)(a) of Section 20 of this Act, the tenant may terminate the lease by giving the landlord notice in a record of the tenant’s intent to terminate the lease on a specified date, which must be at least fourteen (14) days after the expiration of the period allowed under Section 20 of this Act for the remedy of the noncompliance.

(3) In addition to terminating a lease as provided in subsection (1) or (2) of this section, the tenant may recover actual damages.

(4) If a tenant terminates a lease under this section, the landlord shall return any security deposit and unearned rent to which the tenant is entitled under Section 59 of this Act.

SECTION 24. KRS 383.630 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED AS A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section, if a landlord does not deliver physical possession of the dwelling unit to the tenant under Section 15 of this Act, the tenant is not required to pay rent until possession is delivered and may:

(a) Terminate the lease by giving notice in a record to the landlord at any time before the landlord delivers possession of the unit to the tenant; or

(b) Demand performance of the lease by the landlord and:

1. Recover actual damages and obtain possession of the unit from the landlord; or

2. Obtain possession of the unit from any person wrongfully in possession by any lawful means the landlord could have used.

(2) If a tenant terminates the lease under subsection (1)(a) of this section, the landlord shall return any amounts received from the tenant before the commencement of the term of the lease.

(3) In addition to the rights of a tenant under subsections (1) and (2) of this section, if a landlord’s failure to deliver possession to the tenant under Section 15 of this Act is willful, the tenant may recover three (3) times the periodic rent or three (3) times the actual damages, whichever is greater.

(4) If a tenant seeks possession under subsection (1)(b)2. of this section, the tenant is liable to the landlord for rent and may recover from the person wrongfully in possession the damages provided in Section 38 of this Act.

 SECTION 25. KRS 383.640 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED AS A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Subject to subsection (4) of this section, if a landlord fails to comply with the lease or Section 16 of this Act, the tenant may give notice to the landlord under Section 20 of this Act specifying the noncompliance. If the landlord fails to remedy the noncompliance within the applicable period specified in Section 20 of this Act and the reasonable cost to remedy the noncompliance does not exceed one (1) month’s periodic rent, the tenant may make repairs to remedy the noncompliance at the landlord’s expense.

(2) A tenant that makes repairs under subsection (1) of this section is entitled to recover the actual and reasonable cost incurred or the reasonable value of the work performed to remedy the noncompliance, not exceeding one (1) month’s periodic rent. Unless the tenant has been reimbursed by the landlord, the tenant may deduct the cost or value from rent after submitting to the landlord an itemized statement, accompanied by receipts for purchased items and services.

(3) A repair under subsection (1) of this section must be made in a professional manner and in compliance with applicable law.

(4) A tenant may not repair a noncompliance at the landlord’s expense under subsection (1) of this section to the extent:

(a) The noncompliance was caused by an act or omission of the tenant, immediate family member, or guest; or

SECTION 26. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(b) Procure comparable substitute housing at the landlord’s expense during the period of the noncompliance and recover actual damages.

(2) This section does not apply if the tenant’s failure to receive the essential service was caused by an act or omission of the tenant, immediate family member, or guest.

SECTION 27. KRS 383.645 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED AS A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) If a landlord fails to comply with the lease or Section 16 of this Act and the tenant has complied with Section 20 of this Act, the tenant may defend an action by the landlord based on nonpayment of rent on the ground that no rent was due because of the noncompliance and counterclaim for any amount the tenant may recover under the lease or Sections 1 to 61 of this Act.
(2) If a tenant is in possession of the dwelling unit when the landlord files an action based on nonpayment of rent, either party may seek a court order directing the tenant to pay all or part of the unpaid rent and all additional rent as it accrues into an escrow account with the court or a bank or other entity authorized by the court to hold funds in escrow.

(3) If rent has been paid into escrow under this section and the court determines the landlord fully complied with the lease and Section 16 of this Act, the court shall order the immediate release to the landlord of rent held in escrow and enter judgment for any remaining rent owed.

(4) If rent has been paid into escrow under this section and the court determines that the landlord’s noncompliance with the lease or Section 16 of this Act materially interferes with the health or safety of a tenant or an immediate family member or the use and enjoyment of the premises by the tenant or an immediate family member, the court may order one (1) or more of the following:

(a) Release to the landlord of all or part of the rent held in escrow to be used only to bring the premises into compliance with the lease or Section 16 of this Act;

(b) Return to the tenant of all or part of the rent held in escrow in compensation for:

(c) The tenant’s continued payment of rent into escrow as rent becomes due or abatement of future rent until the landlord brings the premises into compliance with the lease or Section 16 of this Act; and

(d) Payment to the landlord of any rent held in escrow not otherwise payable to the tenant.
(5) If rent has not been paid into escrow under this section and the court determines that the landlord complied with the lease and Section 16 of this Act, the court shall render judgment for unpaid rent.

(6) If rent has not been paid into escrow under this section and the court determines that the landlord’s noncompliance with the lease or Section 16 of this Act materially interferes with the health or safety of a tenant or immediate family member or the use and enjoyment of the premises by the tenant or an immediate family member, the court shall render judgment for unpaid rent less any amount expended by the tenant in compliance with Section 25 of this Act to repair the premises and actual damages.

(a) Acted in bad faith in withholding rent; or

(b) Failed to comply with an order to pay rent into escrow under subsection (2) of this section or to pay rent or other amounts owed to the landlord under this section.

(8) The court shall not award possession if the court determines that the tenant withheld rent in good faith and the tenant complies with an order to pay unpaid rent into escrow or to the landlord under this section.

(3) Notice in a record terminating a lease under subsection (2) of this section must specify the reason for the termination and state that:

=> SECTION 31. KRS 383.675 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED AS A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Subject to subsection (2) of this section, acceptance by a landlord of rent for two (2) or more successive rental periods with knowledge of noncompliance by the tenant with the lease or Sections 1 to 61 of this Act or acceptance by the landlord of the tenant’s performance that varies from the terms of the lease or Sections 1 to 61 of this Act is a waiver of the landlord’s right to terminate the lease for the noncompliance, unless the landlord and tenant otherwise agree after the noncompliance occurs.

(2) This section does not prevent a landlord or tenant from exercising a right under Section 37 of this Act to terminate a periodic tenancy.

SECTION 32. KRS 383.680 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED AS A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Distraint for rent is abolished.

(2) A landlord shall not create, perfect, or enforce a lien or security interest on a tenant’s tangible personal property to secure the tenant’s performance under the lease or Sections 1 to 61 of this Act. (1) In this section, "reasonable efforts" means steps a landlord would take to rent a dwelling unit if the unit is vacated at the end of a term, including showing the unit to a prospective tenant or advertising the availability of the unit.

(2) A tenant abandons a dwelling unit if:

(a) The tenant delivers possession of the unit to the landlord before the end of the term by returning the keys or other means of access or otherwise notifies the landlord the unit has been vacated; or

(b) Rent that is due was not paid for at least five (5) days and the tenant has:

(3) If a tenant abandons the dwelling unit before the end of the term of the lease, the the tenant, in which case:

1. The lease terminates on the date of abandonment;
2. The landlord and tenant are liable to each other under the lease only for a noncompliance with the lease or Sections 1 to 61 of this Act which occurred before the lease terminates; and which the tenant is entitled under Section 59 of this Act; or

(4) If a landlord treats abandonment of a dwelling unit as wrongful under subsection (3)(b) of this section, the tenant remains liable under the lease and the landlord has a duty to mitigate by making a reasonable effort to rent the unit, subject to the following rules:

(a) The landlord’s duty to mitigate does not take priority over the landlord’s right to lease first any other dwelling unit the landlord has available to lease;
(b) If the landlord leases the abandoned unit to another person for a term beginning before the expiration of the term of the lease of the abandoning tenant, the lease terminates as of the date of the new tenancy and the landlord may recover actual damages from the abandoning tenant;
(c) If the landlord makes a reasonable effort to lease the abandoning tenant’s unit but is unable to lease it or is able to lease it only for an amount less than the rent payable by the abandoning tenant, the landlord may recover actual damages from the abandoning tenant;
(d) If the landlord fails to make a reasonable effort to lease the abandoning tenant’s unit, the lease terminates as of the date of abandonment, and the landlord and tenant are liable to each other under the lease or Sections 1 to 61 of this Act only for a noncompliance with the lease or Sections 1 to 61 of this Act which occurred before the date of abandonment; and

(e) After deducting the landlord’s actual damages, the landlord shall return any security deposit and unearned rent to which the tenant is entitled under Section 59 of this Act.

If the landlord enters the unit when the tenant is not present and notice was not given, the landlord shall leave notice of the entry in a conspicuous place in the unit stating the fact of entry, the date and time of entry, and the reason for the entry.

(6) When notice is given under this section before the landlord enters the unit, the notice must state the intended purpose for the entry and the date and a reasonable period during which the landlord anticipates making the entry.

(2) If a landlord unlawfully enters a tenant’s dwelling unit, lawfully enters but in an unreasonable manner, or makes repeated demands to enter that are otherwise lawful but have the effect of harassing the tenant, the tenant may recover actual damages or one (1) month’s periodic rent, whichever is greater, and:

(a) Seek injunctive relief to prevent the recurrence of the conduct; or

(b) Terminate the lease by giving the landlord notice in a record that the lease shall terminate immediately or on a later specified date which is not later than thirty (30) days after notice is given.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in Sections 1 to 61 of this Act, a landlord or tenant may terminate a periodic tenancy:

(3) If a deceased tenant is survived by a spouse, or partner in a civil union, or domestic partner who resides in the dwelling unit, notice to terminate a lease under subsection (2) of this section shall not be given before the time specified in subsection (1) of this section expires.

(4) If a landlord is unable to contact a deceased tenant’s surviving spouse, partner in a civil union, or domestic partner who resides in the dwelling unit or tenant representative for the purpose of terminating the lease under subsection (2) of this section, the landlord may terminate the lease without notice if rent that was due was not paid for at least twenty-five (25) days.

SECTION 40. KRS 383.705 IS REPEALED AND REENACTED AS A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A landlord may not engage in conduct described in subsection (2) of this section if the landlord’s purpose is to retaliate against a tenant that:

applicable to the premises materially affecting the health or safety of the tenant or immediate family member;

(b) Complained to a governmental agency responsible for enforcement of laws prohibiting discrimination in rental housing;

(c) Complained to the landlord of noncompliance with the lease or Section 16
of this Act;

(d) Organized or became a member of a tenant’s union or similar organization;

Sections 1 to 61 of this Act, or law other than Sections 1 to 61 of this Act; or

(f) Pursued an action or administrative remedy against the landlord or testified against the landlord in court or an administrative proceeding.

(2) Conduct that may be retaliatory under subsection (1) of this section includes doing or threatening to do any of the following:

(a) Increasing the rent or fees;
(b) Decreasing services, increasing the tenant’s obligations, imposing different rules on, or selectively enforcing the landlord’s rules against, the tenant or immediate family member, or otherwise materially altering the terms of the lease;
(c) Bringing an action for possession on a ground other than nonpayment of rent;
(d) Refusing to renew a tenancy for a fixed term under a lease containing a renewal option that is exercisable by the tenant without negotiation with the landlord, for any period after the lease would otherwise terminate;
(e) Terminating a periodic tenancy; or
(f) Committing a criminal act against the tenant, immediate family member, or guest.

(3) A landlord is not liable for retaliation under subsection (1) of this section if:

(a) The violation of which the tenant complained under subsection (1)(a) or (b) of this section was caused primarily by the tenant, immediate family member, or guest;
(b) The tenant’s conduct described in subsection (1) of this section was in an unreasonable manner or at an unreasonable time or was repeated in a manner harassing the landlord;
(c) The tenant was in default in the payment of rent at the time notice of the action described in subsection (2)(c) of this section was sent;
(d) The tenant, immediate family member, or guest engaged in conduct that threatened the health or safety of another tenant on the premises;
(e) The tenant, immediate family member, or guest engaged in a criminal act;

(g) The landlord is complying or complied with a building, housing, fire, or health code or other law by making a required repair, alteration, remodeling, or demolition that effectively deprives the tenant of the use and enjoyment of the premises.

→ SECTION 41. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) If a landlord’s purpose for engaging in conduct described in subsection (2) of Section 40 of this Act is to retaliate against the tenant for conduct described in subsection (1) of Section 40 of this Act:

(a) The tenant has a defense against an action for possession, may recover possession, or may terminate the lease; and

(b) The tenant may recover three (3) times the periodic rent or three (3) times the actual damages, whichever is greater.

(2) If a tenant terminates a lease under subsection (1) of this section, the landlord shall return any security deposit and unearned rent to which the tenant is entitled under Section 59 of this Act.

(2) A tenant’s exercise of a right under this section does not release the landlord from liability under Section 21 of this Act.

→ SECTION 42. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section, evidence that a tenant engaged in conduct described in subsection (1) of Section 40 of this Act within six (6) months before the landlord’s alleged retaliatory conduct creates a rebuttable presumption that the purpose of the landlord’s conduct was retaliation.

(2) A presumption does not arise under subsection (1) of this section if the tenant engaged in conduct described in subsection (1) of Section 40 of this Act after the landlord gave the tenant notice of the landlord’s intent to engage in conduct described in subsection (1)(a) to (e) of Section 40 of this Act.

(3) A landlord may rebut a presumption under subsection (1) of this section by a preponderance of evidence showing that the landlord had sufficient justification for engaging in the conduct that created the presumption and would have engaged in the conduct in the same manner and at the same time whether or not the tenant engaged in conduct described in subsection (1) of Section 40 of this Act.

⇒ SECTION 43. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

If a tenant engages in conduct described in subsection (1)(a) or (e) of Section 40 of this Act knowing there is no factual or legal basis for the conduct, the landlord may recover actual damages and the court may award the landlord up to three (3) times the periodic rent.

⇒ SECTION 44. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) For purposes of Sections 44 to 46 of this Act, possession of a dwelling unit is relinquished to the landlord when:

(a) The tenant vacates the unit at the termination of the tenancy; or
(b) The tenant abandons the unit under Section 33 of this Act.

(2) If personal property remains on the premises after possession of a dwelling unit is relinquished to the landlord and the landlord and tenant do not agree otherwise at the time of relinquishment, the landlord shall:
(a) Subject to subsection (3) of this section, give the tenant notice in a record of the tenant’s right to retrieve the property; and

(b) Leave the property in the unit or store the property on the premises or in another place of safekeeping and exercise reasonable care in moving or storing the property.

(3) The notice required by subsection (2)(a) of this section must be posted at the dwelling unit and:

(a) Sent to any forwarding address the tenant provided to the landlord or an address provided under Section 8 of this Act or, if no address is provided, to the address of the unit;

(b) Inform the tenant of the right to contact the landlord to claim the property within the period specified in subsection (4) of this section, subject to payment of the landlord’s inventorying, moving, and storage costs; and

(c) Provide a telephone number, electronic-mail address, or mailing address at which the landlord may be contacted.

(4) If a tenant contacts the landlord to claim personal property not later than eight
(8) days after the landlord gives notice under paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of this section, the landlord shall permit the tenant to retrieve personal property not later than five (5) days after the date of contact or within a longer period to which the parties agree.

(5) A landlord may require the tenant to pay reasonable inventorying, moving, and storage costs before retrieving personal property under subsection (4) of this section.

(6) This section does not prohibit a landlord from immediately disposing of perishable food, hazardous material, garbage, and trash or transferring an animal to an animal control officer, humane society, or other person willing to care for the animal.
(7) Unless a landlord and tenant otherwise agree, if the tenant fails to contact the landlord or retrieve personal property as provided in subsection (4) of this section, the property is deemed abandoned and:

(a) If a sale is economically feasible, the landlord shall sell the property and, after deducting the reasonable cost of inventorying, moving, storing, and disposing of the property, shall treat the proceeds as part of the tenant’s security deposit; or

(b) If a sale is not economically feasible, the landlord may dispose of the property in any manner the landlord considers appropriate.

(8) A landlord that complies with this section is not liable to the tenant or another person for a claim arising from removal of personal property from the premises.

(9) A landlord that recovers possession of a dwelling unit under a court order is not required to comply with this section. If a landlord that recovers possession under a court order complies with this section, that landlord is not liable to the tenant or another person for a claim arising from removal of personal property from the premises.

SECTION 45. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) If a landlord knows that a tenant who was the sole occupant of the dwelling unit has died, the landlord:

(a) Shall notify a tenant representative of the death;

(b) Shall give the representative access to the premises at a reasonable time to remove any personal property from the unit and other personal property of the tenant elsewhere on the premises;

(c) May require the representative to prepare and sign an inventory of the property being removed; and

(d) Shall pay the representative the deceased tenant’s security deposit and unearned rent to which the tenant otherwise would have been entitled under Section 59 of this Act.

(2) A contact person or heir accepts appointment as a tenant representative by exercising authority under Sections 1 to 61 of this Act or other assertion or conduct indicating acceptance.

(3) The authority of a contact person or heir to act under Sections 1 to 61 of this Act terminates when the person, heir, or landlord knows that a personal representative has been appointed for the deceased tenant’s estate.

(4) A landlord that complies with this section is not liable to the tenant’s estate or another person for unearned rent, a security deposit, or a claim arising from removal of personal property from the premises.

(5) A landlord that willfully violates subsection (1) of this section is liable to the estate of the deceased tenant for actual damages.

(6) In addition to the rights provided in this section, a tenant representative has the deceased tenant’s rights and responsibilities under Section 44 of this Act.

SECTION 46. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) If a landlord knows of the death of a tenant who, at the time of death, was the sole occupant of the dwelling unit, and the landlord terminates the lease under subsection (4) of Section 39 of this Act because the landlord is unable to contact a tenant representative, the landlord:

(a) Shall mail notice to the tenant at the tenant’s last-known address or other address of the tenant known to the landlord and to any person the tenant has told the landlord to contact in the case of an emergency stating:

1. The name of the tenant and address of the dwelling unit;

2. The approximate date of the tenant’s death;

3. That, if the personal property on the premises is not claimed within sixty (60) days after the notice was sent, the property is subject to disposal by the landlord; and

4. The landlord’s name, telephone number, and mail or electronic-mail address at which the landlord may be contacted to claim the property; and

(b) With the exercise of reasonable care, may leave the property in the dwelling unit or inventory the property and store it on the premises or in another place of safekeeping.

(2) If a tenant representative is subsequently identified, the representative may retrieve the deceased tenant’s personal property from the landlord not later than sixty (60) days after the notice under subsection (1) of this section. The landlord may require the representative to pay the reasonable inventorying, moving, and storage costs before retrieving the property.

(3) If a deceased tenant’s personal property is not retrieved within the time specified in subsection (2) of this section, the landlord may dispose of the property in compliance with subsection (7) of Section 44 of this Act.

(4) A landlord that complies with this section is not liable to the tenant’s estate or another person for a claim arising from removal of personal property from the premises.

SECTION 48. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Subject to subsection (5) of this section, if a victim of an act of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault is a tenant or immediate family member and has a reasonable fear of suffering psychological harm or a further act of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault if the victim continues to reside in the dwelling unit, the tenant, without the necessity of the landlord’s consent, is released from the lease if the tenant gives the landlord a notice that complies with subsection (2) of this section and:

(a) A copy of a court order that restrains a perpetrator from contact with the tenant or immediate family member:
(b) Evidence of the conviction or adjudication of a perpetrator for an act of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault against the tenant or immediate family member; or

(c) A verification that complies with Section 50 of this Act.

(2) To be released from a lease under subsection (1) of this section, the tenant must give the landlord notice in a record which:

be at least thirty (30) days from the date of the notice or, if the perpetrator is a cotenant of the dwelling unit, an earlier date;

(b) States facts giving rise to the fear of psychological harm or suffering a further act of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault if the victim continues to reside in the unit; and

(c) Is given to the landlord:

1. Not later than (90) days after an act of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault against the tenant or immediate family member;

2. When a court order exists that restrains a perpetrator from contact with the tenant or immediate family member because of an act of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault; or

3. If the perpetrator was incarcerated, not later than ninety (90) days after the tenant acquired knowledge that the perpetrator is no longer incarcerated.

(3) If there is only one (1) individual tenant of the dwelling unit:

(a) A release under subsection (1) of this section terminates the lease on the date specified in the notice under subsection (2) of this section if the tenant vacates the dwelling unit on or before that date; and

(b) The tenant is not liable for rent accruing after the lease terminates or other actual damages resulting from termination of the lease, but the tenant remains liable to the landlord for rent and other amounts owed to the landlord before termination of the lease.

(4) If there are multiple individual tenants of the dwelling unit:

(a) The tenant who gave notice under subsection (2) of this section is released from the lease as of the date specified in the notice if the tenant vacates the dwelling unit on or before the specified date, but the release of one (1) tenant under this section does not terminate the lease with respect to other tenants;

(b) The tenant released from the lease is not liable to the landlord or any other person for rent accruing after the tenant’s release or actual damages resulting from the tenant’s release;

(c) Any other tenant under the lease may recover from the perpetrator actual damages resulting from the termination; and

(d) The landlord is not required to return to the tenant released from the lease or a remaining tenant any security deposit or unearned rent to which the tenant is otherwise entitled under Section 59 of this Act until the lease terminates with respect to all tenants.

(5) This section does not apply if a tenant seeking the release from the lease is a perpetrator.

⇒ SECTION 49. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

If a tenant is released from a lease under Section 48 of this Act, the landlord:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (4)(d) of Section 48 of this Act, shall return any security deposit and unearned rent to which the tenant is entitled under Section 59 of this Act after the tenant vacates the dwelling unit;

(2) May not assess a fee or penalty against the tenant for exercising a right granted under Section 48 of this Act; and

(3) May not disclose information required to be reported to the landlord under Section 48 of this Act unless:

(a) The tenant provides specific, time-limited, and contemporaneous consent to the disclosure in a record signed by the tenant; or

(b) The information is required to be disclosed by a court order or law other than Sections 1 to 61 of this Act.

SECTION 50. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A verification given by a tenant under subsection (1)(c) of Section 48 of this Act must be under oath and include the following:

(a) From the tenant:

1. The tenant’s name and the address of the dwelling unit;

2. The approximate dates on which an act of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault occurred;

3. The approximate date of the most recent act of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault;

4. A statement that because of an act of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault, the tenant or immediate family member has a reasonable fear that the tenant or family member will suffer psychological harm or a further act of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault if the tenant or family member continues to reside in the unit; and

5. A statement that the representations in the verification are true and accurate to the best of the tenant’s knowledge and the tenant understands that the verification could be used as evidence in court; and
(b) From an attesting third party:

1. The name, business address, and business telephone number of the party;

2. The capacity in which the party received the information regarding the act of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault;

3. A statement that the party has read the tenant’s verification and been advised by the tenant that the tenant or immediate family member is the victim of an act of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault and has a reasonable fear that the tenant or family member will suffer psychological harm or a further act of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault if the tenant or family member continues to reside in the dwelling unit; and

4. A statement that the party, based on the tenant’s verification, believes the tenant and understands that the verification may be used as the ground for releasing the tenant from a lease or terminating the tenant’s interest under the lease.

(2) If a verification given to a landlord by a tenant under subsection (1)(c) of Section 48 of this Act contains a representation of a material fact known by the tenant to be false, the landlord may recover an amount not to exceed three (3) times the periodic rent or three (3) times actual damages, whichever is greater.

SECTION 51. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A landlord may recover from a perpetrator actual damages resulting from a tenant’s exercise of a right under Section 48 of this Act and, if the perpetrator is a party to the lease who remains in possession of the dwelling unit, hold the perpetrator liable on the lease for all obligations under the lease or Sections 1 to 61 of this Act.

(2) A perpetrator shall not recover actual damages or other relief resulting from the exercise of a right by a tenant under Section 48 of this Act or a landlord under this section.

SECTION 52. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3) of this section, if a tenant or immediate family member is a victim of an act of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault and the tenant has a reasonable fear that the perpetrator or other person acting on the perpetrator’s behalf may attempt to gain access to the dwelling unit, the tenant, without the landlord’s consent, may cause the locks or other security devices for the unit to be changed or rekeyed in a professional manner and shall give a key or other means of access for the new locks or security devices to the landlord and any other tenant, other than the perpetrator, that is a party to the lease.

(2) If locks or other security devices are changed or rekeyed under subsection (1) of this section, the landlord may change or rekey them, at the tenant’s expense, to ensure compatibility with the landlord’s master key or other means of access or otherwise accommodate the landlord’s reasonable commercial needs.

(3) If a perpetrator is a party to the lease, locks or other security devices shall not be changed or rekeyed under subsection (1) of this section unless a court order, other than an ex parte order, expressly requires that the perpetrator vacate the dwelling unit or restrains the perpetrator from contact with the tenant or immediate family member and a copy of the order has been given to the landlord.

(4) A perpetrator shall not recover actual damages or other relief against a landlord or tenant resulting from the exercise of a right by the landlord or tenant under this section.
SECTION 53. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) On issuance of a court order requiring a perpetrator to vacate a dwelling unit because of an act of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault, other than an ex parte order, neither the landlord nor tenant has a duty to:

(a) Allow the perpetrator access to the unit unless accompanied by a law enforcement officer; or

(b) Provide the perpetrator with any means of access to the unit.

(2) If a perpetrator is a party to the lease, on issuance of a court order requiring the perpetrator to vacate the dwelling unit, other than an ex parte order, the perpetrator’s interest under the lease terminates, and the landlord and any remaining tenant may recover from the perpetrator actual damages resulting from the termination.

(3) Termination of a perpetrator’s interest under a lease under this section does not terminate the interest of any other tenant under the lease or alter the obligations of any other tenant under the lease.

(4) A landlord is not required to return to a perpetrator whose interest under the lease terminates under this section or to any remaining tenant any security deposit or unearned rent until the lease terminates with respect to all tenants.

SECTION 54. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) If a landlord has a reasonable belief that a tenant or immediate family member is the victim of an act of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault and another tenant of the same landlord who resides in the same building as the tenant is the perpetrator, the landlord may terminate the perpetrator’s interest in the lease by giving the perpetrator notice in a record that the
(1) The perpetrator’s interest will terminate immediately or on a later specified date, which is not later than (30) days after notice is given. The notice must state that the landlord has a reasonable belief that the perpetrator has committed an act of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault and the approximate date of the act.

(2) Before giving notice to a perpetrator under subsection (1) of this section, the landlord shall give notice of the landlord’s intent to terminate the perpetrator’s interest to the tenant who was the victim of the act of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault or whose immediate family member was the victim. This notice may be given by any means reasonably calculated to reach the tenant, including oral communication, notice in a record, or notice sent to the tenant at any other address at which the landlord reasonably believes the tenant is located.

(3) Failure of a tenant to receive the notice of the landlord’s intent to terminate the perpetrator’s interest under subsection (2) of this section does not affect the landlord’s right to terminate under this section or expose the landlord to any liability.

(4) If a landlord terminates a perpetrator’s interest under a lease under this section, any other tenant under the lease may recover from the perpetrator actual damages resulting from the termination.

(5) Termination of a perpetrator’s interest under a lease under this section does not terminate the interest of any other tenant under the lease or alter the obligations of any other tenant under the lease.

(6) A landlord is not required to return to a perpetrator whose interest under a lease is terminated under this section or to any other tenant under the lease any security deposit or unearned rent until the lease terminates with respect to all tenants.
(7) In an action between a landlord and tenant involving the right of the landlord to terminate the tenant’s interest under this section, the landlord must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the landlord had a reasonable belief that the tenant was a perpetrator.

SECTION 55. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) In this section, "tenant" includes an applicant seeking to enter into a lease with a landlord.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (4) and (5) of this section, a landlord shall not do or threaten to do any act in subsection (2) of Section 40 of this Act if the landlord’s purpose for engaging in the conduct is that:

(a) An act of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault committed against the tenant or immediate family member resulted in a violation of the lease or Sections 1 to 61 of this Act by the tenant; or

(b) A complaint of an act of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault committed against the tenant or immediate family member resulted in a law enforcement or emergency response.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section, a landlord shall not refuse or threaten to refuse to rent a dwelling unit if the landlord’s purpose for the refusal or threat is that a tenant or an immediate family member is or has been the victim of an act of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault.

(4) Evidence that any of the events described in subsection (2) or (3) of this section occurred within six (6) months before the landlord’s conduct creates a presumption that the purpose of the landlord’s conduct was retaliation. The landlord may rebut the presumption by a preponderance of evidence showing that the landlord had sufficient justification for engaging in the conduct described in subsection (2) or (3) of this section and would have engaged in the conduct in the same manner and at the same time regardless whether the events described in subsection (2) or (3) of this section occurred.

(5) A landlord may terminate the lease of a tenant by giving the tenant notice in a record that the lease will terminate on a date specified in the notice, which must be at least thirty (30) days after notice is given if:

(a) Without the landlord’s permission, the tenant invited a perpetrator onto the premises or allowed a perpetrator to occupy the dwelling unit:
   1. After the landlord gave the tenant notice in a record to refrain from inviting the perpetrator onto the premises; or 2. During a time the tenant knows the perpetrator is subject to a no-contact court order or a court order barring the perpetrator from the premises; and
(b) The landlord demonstrates that:
   1. There is an actual and imminent threat to the health or safety of any individual on the premises, the landlord, or the landlord’s agent if the lease is not terminated; or
   2. The perpetrator has damaged the premises.

(6) If a landlord willfully violates subsection (2) or (3) of this section, the tenant or prospective tenant may recover three (3) times the periodic rent or three (3) times actual damages, whichever is greater, and:

(a) Terminate the lease;
(b) Defend an action for possession on the ground that the landlord violated subsection (2) of this section; or
(c) Obtain appropriate injunctive relief.

SECTION 56. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:
(1) In Sections 56 to 60 of this Act, "bank account" means a checking, demand, time, savings, passbook, or similar account maintained at a bank.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (3) and (4) of this section, a landlord shall not require the tenant to pay or agree to pay a security deposit, prepaid rent, or any combination thereof, in an amount that exceeds two (2) times the periodic rent.

(3) The limit established in subsection (2) of this section does not include the first month’s rent or fees.

(4) Except as otherwise provided by law other than Sections 1 to 61 of this Act, if a tenant keeps a pet on the premises or is permitted by the lease to make alterations to the premises, the landlord may require the tenant to pay an additional security deposit in an amount commensurate with the additional risk of damage to the premises.

SECTION 57. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) The following apply to a landlord’s interest in a security deposit:

   (a) The landlord’s interest is limited to a security interest;

   (b) Notwithstanding law other than Sections 1 to 61 of this Act, the landlord’s security interest is effective against and has priority over each creditor of and transferee from the tenant; and

   (c) Subject to subsection (3) of this section, a creditor of and transferee from the landlord can acquire no greater interest in a security deposit than the interest of the landlord.

(2) The following shall apply to a tenant’s interest in a security deposit:

   (a) Notwithstanding law other than Sections 1 to 61 of this Act, the tenant’s interest has priority over any right of setoff the bank in which the account is maintained may have for obligations owed to the bank other than charges normally associated with the bank’s maintenance of the account;

(b) The tenant’s interest is not adversely affected if the deposit is commingled with the deposits of other tenants; and

(c) The effect of commingling other than that allowed in paragraph (b) of this subsection is determined by law other than Sections 1 to 61 of this Act.

(3) Subsection (1)(c) of this section does not abrogate generally applicable rules of law enabling a transferee of funds to take the funds free of competing claims.

SECTION 58. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) With respect to funds constituting a security deposit, a landlord:

(a) Shall maintain the ability to identify the funds:

1. By holding the funds in a bank account that is used exclusively for security deposits, that is maintained with a bank doing business in this state, and the title of which indicates that it contains security deposits; and

2. By maintaining records that indicate at all times the amount of the funds attributable to each tenant whose funds are being held in the account; and

(b) May commingle the funds received from other tenants as security deposits in the same bank account but shall not commingle other funds, including the landlord’s personal or business funds, in the account.

(2) If a landlord fails to comply with subsection (1) of this section, the tenant may recover actual damages or damages equal to one (1) times the periodic rent, whichever is greater.

(3) A bank in which a landlord deposits funds constituting a security deposit has no duty to ensure that the landlord properly applies the funds.

(4) Unless a lease provides otherwise, the landlord is not required to deposit a security deposit into an interest-bearing account or to pay the tenant interest on the deposit.

⇒ SECTION 59. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

1 (1) After termination of a lease, the tenant is entitled to the amount by which the security deposit and any unearned rent exceeds the amount the landlord is owed under the lease or Sections 1 to 61 of this Act.

2 (2) Not later than thirty (30) days after a lease terminates and the tenant vacates the premises, the landlord shall determine the amount the landlord believes the tenant is entitled to under subsection (1) of this section and:

3 (a) Tender that amount to the tenant or, if the tenant has died, the tenant representative;

4 (b) Send that amount by first-class mail, postage prepaid, to an address provided by the tenant or, if the tenant has died, the tenant representative or, in the absence of that address, to the relevant address specified in Section 8 of this Act; or

5 (c) Cause a funds transfer in that amount to be made, with the cost of transfer paid, to a bank account designated by the tenant or, if the tenant has died, the tenant's representative.

6 (3) If the amount under subsection (2) of this section is less than the sum of the tenant’s security deposit and any unearned rent, the landlord shall provide the tenant or tenant representative, within the period specified under subsection (2) of this section, a record specifying each item of property damage or other unfulfilled obligation of the tenant to which the security deposit or unearned rent was applied and the amount applied to each item.

7 (4) If the amount to which the tenant is entitled under subsection (1) of this section is greater than the amount paid to the tenant or tenant representative, the tenant or tenant representative may recover the difference.

(5) If a landlord fails to comply with subsection (2) or (3) of this section, the court may award the tenant or tenant's representative, in addition to any amount recoverable under subsection (4) of this section, two hundred fifty dollars ($250) or two (2) times the amount recoverable under subsection (4) of this section, whichever is greater, unless the landlord's only noncompliance was the failure to comply with subsection (2(b)) of this section as a result of the inadvertent failure to pay the cost of postage or transmission or to use the proper address.

(6) If a security deposit and unearned rent held by a landlord are insufficient to satisfy the tenant’s obligations under the lease and Sections 1 to 61 of this Act, the landlord may recover from the tenant the amount necessary to satisfy those obligations.

SECTION 60. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 383 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) When a landlord’s interest in the premises terminates, the landlord:

(a) If the lease continues, not later than thirty (30) days after the termination of the landlord’s interest, shall transfer to the person succeeding the landlord’s interest in the premises any security deposit being held by the landlord and notify the tenant in a record of the successor’s name and address, the amount transferred, and any claim previously made against the security deposit; or

(b) If the lease terminates as a result of the termination of the landlord’s interest, shall comply with Section 59 of this Act.

(2) If a landlord dies before the termination of the lease, the personal representative of the landlord’s estate becomes the landlord until the premises are distributed to the successor. If the premises are distributed to the successor before the termination of the lease, the security deposit held by the representative must be transferred to the successor and the representative shall notify the tenant in a record of the successor's name and address, the amount transferred to the successor, and any claim previously made against the security deposit. If the premises are not distributed to the successor before the termination of the lease, the representative shall comply with Section 59 of this Act.

(3) If a landlord or personal representative of the landlord's estate complies with subsection (1) or (2) of this section, the landlord or the estate has no further liability with respect to the security deposit.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (5) of this section, a successor to a landlord's interest in the premises has all rights and obligations of the landlord under Sections 1 to 61 of this Act with respect to any security deposit held by the predecessor landlord which has not been returned to the tenant, whether or not the security deposit was transferred or distributed to the successor.

(5) If a landlord's interest is terminated by foreclosure, the successor's liability under subsection (4) of this section is limited to the security deposit received by the successor.
