2. KRS Chapter 218A;

3. KRS 507.020, 507.030, and 507.040;

4. KRS 508.010, 508.020, 508.025, 508.030, and 508.032;

5. KRS Chapter 509;

6. KRS Chapter 510;

7. KRS Chapter 511;

8. KRS Chapter 513;

9. KRS 514.030;

10. KRS Chapter 530;

11. KRS Chapter 531;

12. A criminal statute of the United States or another state similar to subparagraphs 1. to 11. of this paragraph; or

13. A violation of the uniform code of military justice or military regulation similar to subparagraphs 1. to 11. of this paragraph which has caused the person to be discharged from the Armed Forces of the United States;

(b) Has a substantiated finding of child abuse or neglect by the cabinet as documented by the child abuse/neglect central registry maintained by the cabinet;

(c) Has a validated substantiated finding of adult abuse, neglect, or exploitation by the cabinet as documented by the adult caregiver misconduct registry maintained by the cabinet; or

(d) Is listed on the Kentucky nurse aide abuse registry.

(2) A person who has received a pardon for an offense specified in subsection (1)(a) of this section or has had the record of such an offense expunged may be an owner, manager, operator, or employee.

(3) An assisted-living community that is certified as of July 1, 2021, and is owned by a person who is prohibited from being certified or having a certification renewed under subsection (1) of this section, may continue to operate if the person listed as owner in the certification application in existence as of July 1, 2021, does not have contact or potential contact with any client on the assisted-living community's property regardless of purpose.

Section 2. KRS 194A.700 is amended to read as follows:

As used in KRS 194A.700 to 194A.729:

(1) "Activities of daily living" means normal daily activities, including bathing, dressing, grooming, transferring, toileting, and eating;

(2) "Assistance with activities of daily living and instrumental activities of daily living" means any assistance provided by the assisted-living community staff with the client having at least minimal ability to direct by communication and physically participate in the activity with which assistance is being provided;

(3) "Assistance with self-administration of medication," unless subject to more restrictive provisions in an assisted-living community's policies that are communicated in writing to clients and prospective clients, means:

(a) Assistance with medication that is prepared or directed by the client, the client's designated representative, or a licensed health care professional who is not the owner, manager, or employee of the assisted-living community. The medication shall:

1. Except for ointments, be preset in a medication organizer or be in a single dose unit;
2. Include the client's name on the medication organizer or container in which the single dose unit is stored; and
3. Be stored in a manner requested in writing by the client or the client's designated representative[ and permitted by the assisted living community's policies];

(b) Assistance by an assisted-living community staff person, which includes:

1. Reminding a client when to take medications and observing to ensure that the client takes the medication as directed;
2. Handing the client's medication to the client, or if it is difficult for the client or the client requests assistance, opening the unit dose or medication organizer, removing the medication from a medication organizer or unit dose container, closing the medication organizer for the client, placing the dose in a container, and placing the medication or the container in the client's hand;
3. Steadying or guiding a client's hand while the client is self-administering medications; or
4. Applying over-the-counter topical ointments and lotions;

(c) Making available the means of communication by telephone, facsimile, or other electronic device with a licensed health care professional and pharmacy regarding a prescription for medication;
(d) At the request of the client or the client's designated representative, facilitating the filling of a preset medication container by a designated representative or licensed health care professional who is not the owner, manager, or employee of the assisted living community; and

(e) None of the following:

1. Instilling eye, ear, or nasal drops;

2. Mixing compounding, converting, or calculating medication doses;

3. Preparing syringes for injection or administering medications by any injection method;

   breathing machines or a nebulizer;

5. Administering medications by way of a tube inserted in a cavity of the body;

6. Administering parenteral preparations;

7. Administering irrigations or debriding agents used in the treatment of a skin condition; or

8. Administering rectal, urethral, or vaginal preparations;

(4) "Assisted-living community" means a series of living units on the same site certified under KRS 194A.707 to provide services for five (5) or more adult persons not related within the third degree of consanguinity to the owner or manager;

(5) "Client," "resident," or "tenant" means an adult person who has entered into a lease agreement with an assisted-living community;

(6) "Danger" means:

(a) Physical harm or threat of physical harm to one's self or others; or

(b) A condition that the department finds exists on or within the premises of the assisted-living community, based on factual circumstances, that threatens imminent harm to a client's health or physical safety and for which a plan of correction has not been submitted and approved by the department as required;
"Department" means the Department for Aging and Independent Living;

"Health services" has the same meaning as in KRS 216B.015;

"Instrumental activities of daily living" means activities to support independent living including but not limited to housekeeping, shopping, laundry, chores, transportation, and clerical assistance;

"Living unit" means a portion of an assisted-living community occupied as the living quarters of a client under a lease agreement;

"Mobile nonambulatory" means unable to walk without assistance, but able to move from place to place with the use of a device including but not limited to a walker, crutches, or wheelchair;

"Plan of correction" means a written response from the assisted-living community addressing an instance cited in the statement of noncompliance;

"Statement of danger" means a written statement issued by the department detailing an instance where a client is a danger or is in danger due to a condition that exists at the assisted-living community; and

"Statement of noncompliance" means a written statement issued by the department detailing an instance when the department considers the assisted-living community to have been in violation of a statutory or regulatory requirement.

Section 3. KRS 194A.707 is amended to read as follows:

The Cabinet for Health and Family Services shall establish by the promulgation of administrative regulations under KRS Chapter 13A, an initial and annual certification renewal process for assisted-living communities. This administrative regulation shall establish procedures related to applying for, reviewing, renewing, and approving, denying, or revoking certification. A denial or revocation of certification may be appealed, and upon appeal an administrative hearing shall be conducted within ninety (90) days of the date the appeal is filed if received within the required time limit. An assisted-living community that has adhered to all time frames shall be able to operate during the appeal process and until a hearing officer has rendered a final decision. The administrative hearing shall be conducted as governed by KRS Chapter 13B. If an appeal is not requested or is not filed within the required time limit, the notice of denial or revocation issued by the cabinet shall become final and may be appealed to the Circuit Court within thirty (30) days of the date it becomes final[, as well as the conduct of hearings upon appeals as governed by KRS Chapter 13B].

(2) An on-site visit of an assisted-living community shall be conducted by the cabinet:

(a) As part of the initial certification review process; and

(b) On an annual[a biennial] basis as part of the certification renewal[review] process[ if during or since the previous certification review an assisted-living community has not received:

1. Any statement of danger, unless withdrawn by the cabinet; or

2. A finding substantiated by the cabinet that the assisted-living community delivered a health service; and

(c) Within one (1) year of the date of the previous certification review if during or since the last certification review an assisted-living community has received:

1. Any statement of danger that was not withdrawn by the cabinet; or

2. A finding substantiated by the cabinet that the assisted-living community delivered a health service].

(3) No business shall market its service as an assisted-living community unless it has:

(a) Filed a current application for the business to be certified by the department as an assisted-living community; or

(b) Received certification by the department as an assisted-living community.

(4) No business that has been denied renewal or had its certification revoked shall operate or market its service as an assisted-living community unless it has:

(a) Filed a current application for the business to be certified or have certification
(b) Received certification as an assisted-living community from the department. Renewal of certification may be grounds for the department to not renew certification for one (1) year if ownership remains substantially the same.

(5) No business shall operate as an assisted-living community unless its owner or manager has:

(a) Filed a current application for the business to be certified or for certification renewal as an assisted-living community by the department; and

(b) Received certification as an assisted-living community from the department.

(6) By September 1 of each year, each assisted-living community certified pursuant to this chapter may provide residents with educational information or education opportunities on influenza disease.

(7) The department shall determine the feasibility of recognizing accreditation by other organizations in lieu of certification from the department.

(8) Individuals designated by the department to conduct certification reviews shall have the skills, training, experience, and ongoing education to perform certification reviews.

(9) The cabinet may promulgate administrative regulations to establish an assisted-living community certification and renewal fee that shall not exceed costs of the program to the cabinet, to be assessed upon receipt of an application for certification. The department shall submit a breakdown of fees assessed and costs incurred for conducting certification and renewal reviews upon request.

(10) The department shall make findings from certification reviews conducted during the prior twelve (12) months available to any interested person.

(11) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the department may request any additional information from an assisted-living community or conduct additional on-site visits to ensure compliance with the provisions of KRS 194A.700 to 194A.729.

(12) Failure to follow an assisted-living community's policies, practices, and procedures shall not result in a finding of noncompliance unless the assisted-living community is out of compliance with a related requirement under KRS 194A.700 to 194A.729.

Section 4. KRS 194A.717 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Staffing in an assisted-living community shall be sufficient in number and qualification to meet the twenty-four (24) hour [scheduled] needs of each client pursuant to the lease agreement and the required functional needs assessment for each client.

(2) At least one (1) awake staff member shall be on site at all times and shall not be shared with another level of care during the shift being worked at the assisted-living facility.

(3) An assisted-living community shall have a designated manager who is at least twenty-one (21) years of age, has at least a high school diploma or a High School Equivalency Diploma, and has demonstrated management or administrative ability to maintain the daily operations.

(4) No employee who has an active communicable disease reportable to the Department for Public Health shall be permitted to work in an assisted-living community if the employee is a danger to the clients or other employees.

Section 5. KRS 194A.723 is amended to read as follows:

Any business that operates or markets its services as an assisted-living community without filing a current application with the department or receiving certification by the department may be fined up to five hundred dollars ($500) per day. In addition, the cabinet may initiate injunctive relief in the Circuit Court to enforce KRS 194A.700 to 194A.729 or terminate operation of an assisted-living community if that assisted-living community continues to operate or market its services after the cabinet's notice of revocation or denial of renewal of certification has become final.
